'An Afternoon of Classical Music' in Support of the Foundation of CKHA

CHATHAM, ON (Monday, December 21, 2009): On Sunday, January 24, 2010, Christine Tithecott, daughter of Elizabeth and Dr. Gary Tithecott, will be performing a selection of classical piano music in support of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance's Highest Priority Needs. The event will take place at St. Andrews United Church in Chatham, 85 William Street, and will commence at 2:00 p.m.

Christine Tithecott has completed a Masters program in Piano Performance from the University of Western Ontario and is currently preparing for an application for doctoral studies. Christine holds a graduated Bachelor of Music Degree in Music Education from the University of Western Ontario (2007) and a Solo Piano Performer ARCT Diploma from the Royal Conservatory of Music. She has also completed in various competitions and presented recitals in Canada and France.

"Elizabeth and I are extremely proud of Christine's many accomplishments, her passion for music and her desire and willingness to perform locally to help benefit Chatham-Kent Health Alliance's Highest Priority Needs," says Dr. Gary Tithecott, Chief of Staff, Chatham-Kent Health Alliance. "St. Andrews United Church's generous donation of their facility for the concert will provide an intimate setting for Christine's sophisticated classical repertoire."

Christine will perform her repertoire from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. and a reception with refreshments will follow from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Tickets are available for $10 each or three for $25. Tickets can be purchased through the Foundation of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance at 519.436.2538, foundation@ckha.on.ca or by visiting the Foundation's Chatham office at 9 Ursuline Ave.

"I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Christine Tithecott for once again hosting an exclusive concert in support of the Foundation of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance," says Michele Grzebien, Executive Director, and Foundation of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance. "We are fortunate to have the support of such a tremendous local talent and we are grateful for her efforts to help raise funds for Chatham-Kent Health Alliance's Highest Priority Needs."

About the Foundation of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance

The Foundation of Chatham-Kent Health Alliance was established in 1998 to enhance the quality of healthcare available to the citizens of Chatham-Kent by raising funds and providing other resources to support Chatham-Kent Health Alliance. It accomplishes this through annual campaigns, capital and endowment campaigns, memorial giving, special events and planned giving. To date, the Foundation has raised over $28 million.
